

The London Cocker Spaniel Society
18th July 2015
Special Awards

Special Puppy (6,2)

1. Hill's Olibond Sunshine Girl At Princehill, 8 month old O/R feminine bitch of good substance presenting a compact picture, moderate angulations without exaggeration and once settled moved out well with good tail action.
2. Burnet's Charmwen Tri Me Out, 6 month B W &T dog, Well grown young man with good bone and substance, moderate neck leading into correctly placed shoulders. Well rounded hindquarters and moved well.
3. Thomas's Snowgate Black Shadow Among Claramand

Special Post Graduate(9,5)

1. Kettle's Lujesa Sky's The Limit, substantial 14 month Black dog of balanced proportions. Well developed skull with expressive dark eye. Well laid back shoulders and good length to upper arm. On the move covered the ground well and maintained a level topline.
2. Kew's Withiflor Wheels on Fire At Wylyeview, 2 yr B&T bitch of finer build but had good overall balance with enough bone. Very feminine with the most appealing expressive eye. Square, well balanced with rounded hindquarters. A little erratic on the move initially but once settled moved well.
3. Lockwood's Lujesa Sofia to Chimewood

Special Open ((7, 4)

1. Lockwood's Lujesa Casellina at Chimewood, 8yr Black bitch in super condition and well presented. She won this class on her front assembly with well laid back shoulders and straight legs with her elbows set close to her body. Well sprung ribs with good depth to them. Moved well with good tail action.

2. Kettle's Lujesa Obrigada JW, Well presented 2yr Black bitch of good bone and substance with the most appealing of expressions and correct skull proportions. Short in loin, balanced all through and used her rounded hindquarters well on the move.

Sam Hutson